Guest Speaker Newton Gatambia Kibiringi

Newton, originally from Kenya, is youth minister at Werrington Parish Church. He became a Christian when he was fourteen and because of this believes that young people can become disciples of Christ now, and are best placed to reach out to their families and friends with the Gospel of Jesus. His passion is to see people experience God's love powerfully and for them to share this love zealously. He is married to his beautiful wife Irene and they have a gorgeous baby boy Sifa. Newton enjoys exploring God's created nature, poetry, football, good music, as well as creating amazing memories with loved ones!

THE GREATEST

We are often told in life 'to keep the main thing the main thing'. So what is the main thing in our Christian faith? Who better to ask than Jesus himself and how better can we work this out than to look at what he says in his word. Jesus' response to a question asked by a lawyer in Matthew 22:36-40 is known as the Greatest Commandment and gets to the heart of this question. This Letton we will be looking at what it means to live out the greatest commandment as the greatest adventure of our lives.
